R. You, O Lord, are my re- fuge: my God in whom I put my trust.

Whoever dwells in the shelter of the Most High and abides under the shadow of the Almighty, Shall say to the Lord, 'My refuge and my stronghold,
my God, in whom I put my trust.' R

Because you have made the Lord your refuge and the Most High your stronghold,
There shall no evil happen to you,
neither shall any plague come near your tent. R

For he shall give his angels charge over you,
to keep you in all your ways.
They shall bear you in their hands,
lest you dash your foot against a stone. R

You shall tread upon the lion and adder;
the young lion and the serpent you shall trample underfoot.
Because they have set their love upon me, therefore will I deliver them;
I will lift them up, because they know my name. R

They will call upon me and I will answer them;
I am with them in trouble, I will deliver them and bring them to honour.
With long life will I satisfy them and show them my salvation. R

Psalm 91. 1, 2, 9– 16

R. You, O Lord, are my re- fuge: my God in whom I put my trust.

LENT 2 Year C

R. The Lord is my light and my sal - va - tion.

The Lord is my light and my sálvátion;
whom then shall I féar?
The Lord is the strength of my lífe;
of whom then shall I bè áfráid? R

When the wicked, even my enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flésh,
they stumbléd and féll.
Though a host encamp against me, my heart shall not bè áfráid, and though there rise up war against me, yet will I put my trúst in him. R

One thing have I asked of the Lord and that alóne I séek:
that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my lífe
To behold the fair beauty of the Lórd and to seek his will in his témples. R

For in the day of trouble he shall hide me in his shéltér;
in the secret place of his dwelling shall he hide me and set me high upon a róck.
And now shall he lift up my héad above my enemies round ábout me; R

Therefore will I offer in his dwelling an oblation with gréat gládnness;
I will sing and make music to the Lórd.
Hear my voice, O Lord, when I cáll;
have mercy upon me and ánsWER me R

My heart tells of your word, 'Séek my fáce.'
Your face, Lord, will I séek.
Hide not your fáce from me,
nor cast your servant away in díspléasure. R

You have bÉen my hÉlper;
leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my sálvátion.
Though my father and my mothÉr fórsáke me,
the Lord will táke mé úp. R

LENT 2

Teach me your way, Ó Lórd; .
lead me on a level path, because of those who lie in wait for me.
Deliver me not into the will of my adversaries, for false witnesses have risen up against me, and those who breathe out violence R

I believe that I shall see the goodness of the Lórd in the land of the living.
Wait for the Lord; be strong and he shall comfort your heart;
wait patiently for the Lórd. R

R My soul thirsts for the li - ving God.

O God, you are my God; eagerly I seek you;
my soul is athirst for you.
My flesh also faints for you,
as in a dry and thirsty land where there is no water. R

So would I gaze upon you in your holy place, [omit 2 & 3] that I might behold your power and your glory. R

Your loving-kindness is better than life itself and so my lips shall praise you.
I will bless you as long as I live and lift up my hands in your name. R

My soul shall be satisfied, as with marrow and fatness,
and my mouth shall praise you with joyful lips,
When I remember you upon my bed and meditate on you in the watches of the night R.

For you have been my helper
and under the shadow of your wings will I rejoice.
My soul clings to you;
your right hand shall hold me fast. R

Psalm 63. 1 – 9

R. You, O Lord, are my hi-ding place, you pre-serve me from trou-ble.

Happy the one whose transgression is fòrgíven,
and whose sín is còvered.
Happy the one to whom the Lord impùtes nò gúilt, and in whose spirit there is nò gúile. R

For I héd my tóngue;
my bones wasted away through my groaning all the dáy lóng.
Your hand was heavy upon me dáy and níght;
my moisture was dried up like the dròught in sùmmer. R

Then I acknowlédged my sín to you and my iniquity I dí d nòt híde.
I said, 'I will confess my transgressions to the Lórd,' and you forgave the guilt of my sín. R

Therefore let all the faithful make their prayers to you in tí me of tróuble;

You are a place for me to híde in; you preserve mé from tróuble;

I will guide you wíth my éye.
'Be not like horse and mule which have no ùndèrstánding;
whose mouths must be held with bit and bridle, or else they will nòt stáy néar you.' R

Great tribulations remain fòr the wícked,
But mercy embraces those who trust in the Lórd.
Be glad, you righteous, and rejoice in the Lórd;
shout for joy, all who are true of héart. R

Psalm 32

R. You, O Lord, are my hi-ding place, you pre-serve me from trou-ble.

LENT 5 Year C

R. The Lord has done great things for us, and we are glad in- deed.

When the Lord restored the fortunes of Zion,
then were we like those who dream.
Then was our mouth filled with laughter and our tongue with songs of joy. R

Then said they among the nations,
'The Lord has done great things for them.'
The Lord has indeed done great things for us,
and therefore we rejoiced. R

Restore again our fortunes, O Lord, as the river beds of the desert.
Those who sow in tears

Those who go out weeping, bearing the seed,
will come back with shouts of joy,
bearing their sheaves with them. R

Save me, Ó Gód,
 for the waters have come up, even to my neck.
 I sink in deep mire where there is no foothold;
 I have come into deep waters and the flood sweeps over me.
 I have grown weary with crying; my throat is raw;
 my eyes have failed from looking so long for my Gód. R

For your sake have I suffered reproach; shame has covered my face.
 I have become a stranger to my kindred,

 Zeal for your house has eaten me up;

Reproach has broken my heart;

GOOD FRIDAY Year C

R My God my God, why have you for - sa - ken me?

The image shows a musical score for the hymn 'My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?'. It consists of two systems of music. The first system has a vocal line in the treble clef and a piano accompaniment in the bass clef. The second system continues the piano accompaniment with a more complex texture, including chords and arpeggios. The key signature is one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is 4/4.

My God, my God, why have you forsaken me, and are so far from my salvation, from the words of my distress?
O my God, I cry in the daytime, but you do not answer;
and by night also, but I find no rest. R

Yet you are the Holy One, enthroned upon the praises of Israel.
Our forebears trusted in you; they trusted, and you delivered them.
They cried out to you and were delivered;
they put their trust in you and were not confounded. R

But as for me, I am a worm and no man, scorned by all and despised by the people.
All who see me laugh me to scorn; they curl their lips and wag their heads, saying,
'He trusted in the Lord; let him deliver him;
let him deliver him, if he delights in him.' R

But it is you that took me out of the womb and laid me safe upon my mother's breast.
On you was I cast ever since I was born; you are my God even from my mother's womb.
Be not far from me, for trouble is near at hand
and there is none to help. R

Verses 12-21

Mighty oxen come around me;
fat bulls of Bashan close me in on every side.
They gape upon me with their mouths,
as it were a ramping and a roaring lion. R

I am poured out like water; all my bones are out of joint;
my heart has become like wax melting in the depths of my body.
My mouth is dried up like a potsherd; my tongue cleaves to my gums;
you have laid me in the dust of death. R

For the hounds are all about me, the pack of evildoers close in on me;
they pierce my hands and my feet.
I can count all my bones;
they stand staring and looking upon me. R

They divide my garments among them;
they cast lots for my clothing.
Be not far from me, O Lord;
you are my strength; hasten to help me. R

GOOD FRIDAY

Deliver my soul from the sword,
my poor life from the power of the dog.
Save me from the lion's mouth, from the horns of wild oxen.
--- You have answered me! R

Verses 22-30

I will tell of your name to my people;
in the midst of the congregation will praise you.
Praise the Lord, you that fear him;
O seed of Jacob, glorify him; stand in awe of him, O seed of Israel. R

For he has not despised nor abhorred the suffering of the poor;
neither has he hidden his face from them;
but when they cried to him he heard them.
From you comes my praise in the great congregation;
I will perform my vows in the presence of those that fear you. R

The poor shall eat and be satisfied;
those who seek the Lord shall praise him; their hearts shall live for ever.
All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to the Lord, and all the families of the nations shall bow before him. R

For the kingdom is the Lord's and he rules over the nations.
How can those who sleep in the earth bow down in worship, or those who go down to the dust kneel before him? R

He has saved my life for himself; my descendants shall serve him;
this shall be told of the Lord for generations to come.
They shall come and make known his salvation, to a people yet unborn, declaring that he, the Lord, has done it. R

R This is the day that the Lord has made; we will re-joice and be glad in it.

The first system of music consists of two staves. The upper staff is a vocal line in G major (one sharp) with a treble clef. It begins with a quarter rest, followed by a series of eighth and quarter notes: G4, A4, B4, C5, B4, A4, G4. A fermata is placed over the final G4. The lower staff is a piano accompaniment in G major with a bass clef, featuring a steady eighth-note bass line and block chords. A 'V' (Vivace) marking is placed above the final measure of the vocal line.

The second system of music consists of two staves, both with a piano accompaniment in G major. The upper staff has a treble clef and the lower staff has a bass clef. The music is primarily chordal, with some eighth-note movement in the upper staff.

The third system of music consists of a single staff with a vocal line in G major, using a treble clef. The melody is similar to the first system, starting with a quarter rest and moving through G4, A4, B4, C5, B4, A4, G4, with a fermata over the final note.

ASCENSION DAY

Psalm 24 was given for the Sunday after Ascension Day in Year 1 and Psalm 8 for the feast itself.. Note the pointing of the last line of the last two stanzas, where the penultimate accent falls on the note rising after the recitation. The refrain Alleluia is set to a traditional plainsong melody.

EASTER 7 Year C

R. The Lord is king, most high o-ver all the earth.

The musical score consists of two systems. The first system has a vocal line in G major (one flat) and a piano accompaniment. The second system continues the piano accompaniment with chords and arpeggios.

The Lord is king: let the earth rejoice;
 let the multitude of the isles be glad.
 Clouds and darkness are round about him;
 righteousness and justice are the foundation of his throne.
 Fire goes before him and burns up his enemies on every side. R

His lightnings lit up the world;
 the earth saw it and trembled.
 The mountains melted like wax at the presence of the Lord,
 at the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.
 The heavens declared his righteousness,
 and all the peoples have seen his glory. R

Confounded be all who worship carved images and delight in mere idols.
 Bow down before him, all you gods.
 Zion heard and was glad, and the daughters of Judah rejoiced, because of your judgements, O Lord.
 For you, Lord, are most high over all the earth;
 you are exalted far above all gods. R

The Lord loves those who hate evil;
 he preserves the lives of his faithful and delivers them from the hand of the wicked.
 Light has sprung up for the righteous and joy for the true of heart.

[omit 1]

O Lord, how manifold are your works!
In wisdom you have made them all;
the earth is full of your creatures. R

There is the sea, spread far and wide,
and there move creatures beyond number, both small and great.
There go the ships, and there is that Leviathan which you have made to play in the deep. R

All of these look to you to give them their food in due season.
When you give it them, they gather it;
you open your hand and they are filled with good. R

When you hide your face they are troubled;
when you take away their breath, they die and return again to the dust.
When you send forth your spirit, they are created,
and you renew the face of the earth. R

May the glory of the Lord endure for ever;
may the Lord rejoice in his works;
He looks on the earth and it trembles;
he touches the mountains and they smoke R.

I will sing to the Lord as long as I live;
I will make music to my God while I have my being.
So shall my song please him
while I rejoice in the Lord. R

[omit 1 & 2]

Bless the Lord, O my soul.

TRINITY SUNDAY Year C

R How e - xal - ted is your name in all the world.

O Lórd our góvornor,
 how glorious is your name in all the wórld!
 Your majesty above the heav'ns is práised out of the mouths of babes at the bréast.
 You have founded a stronghold agáinst your fóes,
 That you might still the enemy and the avénger. R

When I consider your heav'ns, the work of your fingers,
 the moon and the stars that you have ordáined,
 What is man, that you should be míndful of him;
 the son of man, that you should sèek him out?
 You have made him little lower than the ángels and crown him with glory and hónour. R

You have given him dominion over the works of your hánds and put all things undér his féet,
 All shéep and óxen,
 even the wild beasts of the field,
 The birds of the air, the fish of the séa
 and whatsoever moves in the paths of the séa R.
