Lord, you have been our refuge
from one generation to another.
Before the mountains were brought forth,
or the earth and the world were formed,
from everlasting to everlasting you are God. R

You turn us back to dust and say:
'Turn back, O children of earth.'
For a thousand years in your sight are but as yesterday,

You have set our misdeeds before you and our secret sins in the light of your countenance. R

our years come to an end like a sigh.
The days of our life are three score years and ten,

for they soon pass away and we are gone. R

Who regards the power of your wrath
and your indignation like those who fear you?]
